

Chris Warren to Play in US Army All American Bowl All Star Game

Representatives from the US Army will be on campus at RHS next Thursday (11/13) in the library at 8:15 AM to present Rockwall football player Chris Warren with his jersey for the US Army All American Bowl All-Star Game, which will be held in San Antonio on January 3, 2015. We would love for you to be in attendance for this presentation, as it is a reflection on the work we all have put into making good things happen for Chris, as well as our football program and campus.

This is the first time Rockwall High School has had a football player invited to participate in a national all-star game such as this one, and it is an extreme honor for Chris. The presentation should last approximately 15 minutes, so we don't disrupt any class time. Please spread the word to anyone who isn't addressed in this email, but who you may feel would like to be in attendance.
